

International House

An announcement regarding the opening in September, 1924

WE HAVE "PITCHED OUR TENT." HERE WE MAY "CAMP"
TOGETHER, FAR APART FROM THE WORLD OF DIFFER-ENCES. WHAT SHALL WE GAIN FROM THIS SOJOURN
—WHAT TO MERIT IT? CAN WE NOT GIVE BACK TO
THE WORLD A NEW APPRECIATION OF MANKIND, ITS ALIKENESS IN SPIRIT AND ITS INTER-DEPENDENCE?

INTERNATIONAL HOUSE

I am International House.

I open my doors in September, 1924, to the students of the world that they may live together and grow in understanding.

I am only a house.

I am material.

I am builded as a canopy for an adventure which had its beginning in a friendly greeting given to a lonely student fourteen years ago which has widened into a world brotherhood; therefore

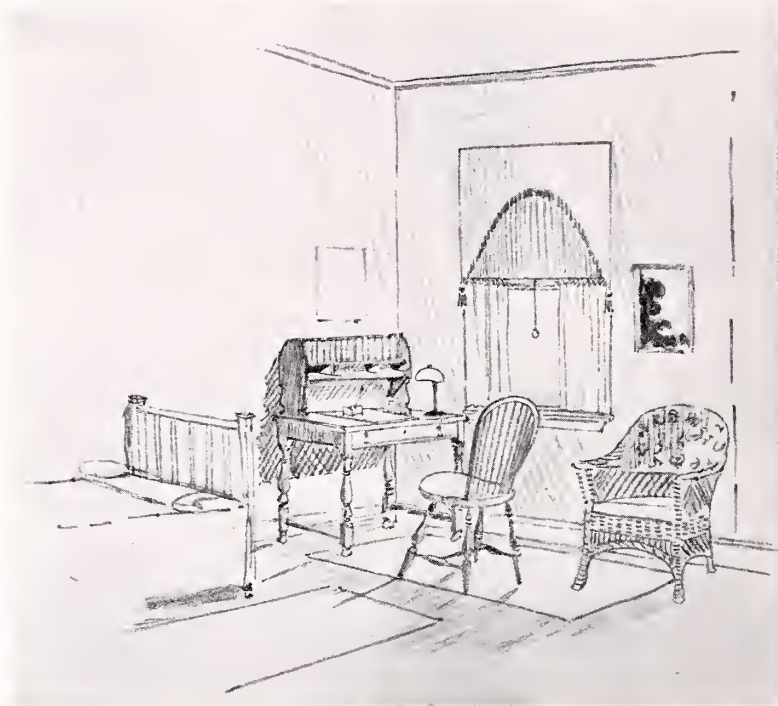

I am not a beginning, but a fulfillment.

I depend on my members to make me a hospitable home of friendship. They will be the guardians of the accumulated traditions made by the student members of the Intercollegiate Cosmopolitan Club who have gone before them to the uttermost parts of the earth with a new understanding of brotherhood. We can add to their faith, theirs should be a prop to ours.

I am a house of echoes. What of Love, Friendship, and Understanding my friends sing into me, will come back to them.

HOME ROOM

DORMITORY ROOM

I open my doors to students of every race, color, and creed. Within my walls they and their friends may have fellowship one with the other. There they may come to know the world through friendship with its peoples—its earnest young people—who are seeking betterment—growth—and who will lead future developments in every land.

I am situated on a hill—a modern acropolis—beside the Hudson River, where there is freedom of air and sky, in America's largest city.

I face on my South and West sides, the Hudson River; on my East, Claremont Avenue and from my highest windows a view of Long Island Sound. My every window gleams in light and sunshine. On Riverside Drive at 124th Street, I am convenient to the colleges of the city: New York University and City College at the North; Columbia University, including Barnard College and Teachers College, in five minutes walking distance; Union Seminary and the Institute of Musical Art across the street; Hunter College and the Art Schools to the East; New York University at Washington Square and the Medical Schools to the South. The Riverside Buses pass my door and can be taken at the principal railroad stations. Subways and trolleys are close at hand.

I am three buildings, with separate walls, under one roof.

I provide a distinctly separate Dormitory for Women on Riverside Drive, which includes Valeting and Sewing Rooms.

I provide a distinctly separate Dormitory for Men on Claremont Avenue.

I contain 525 quiet, sunny, agreeably furnished rooms, with every modern convenience.

VIEWS FROM INTER

SOUTH-WEST—SHOWING GRANT'S TOMB, RIVERSIDE DRIVE AND PARK, THE HUDSON AND NEW JERSEY.

SOUTH-EAST—WITH THE NEARBY COLLEGES IN THE FOREGROUND.

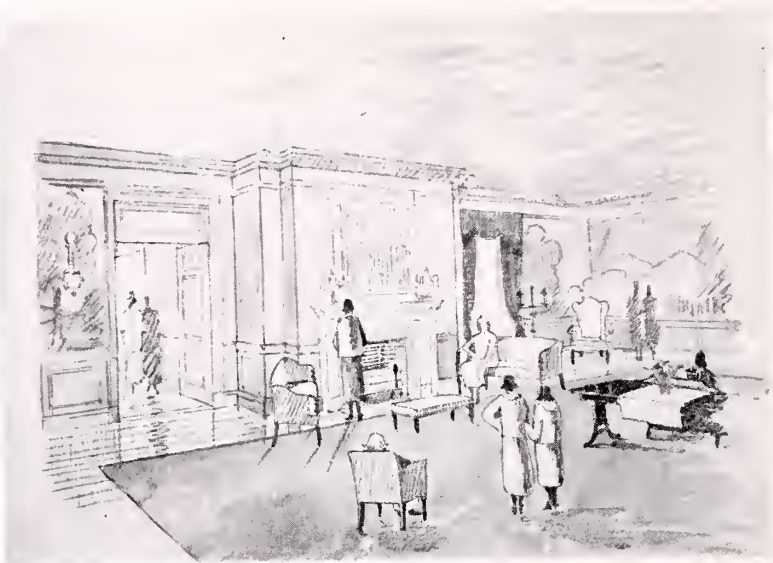

INTERNATIONAL HOUSE

RECEPTION ROOM

A CORNER OF THE REFECTORY.

I have beautiful Halls, Reception and Home Rooms, a Social Room for the exclusive use of women residents, and a similar room for the men.

I include a beautiful Assembly Hall, seating 1000 people, that will be available for a variety of occasions—student meetings of all kinds, lectures, forums, theatricals, banquets, dances, motion pictures. Other smaller rooms are also available.

I offer in my Refectory, meals at moderate prices, with Tea Room and Cafeteria service. Arrangements may be made for small dinners and large banquets. Kitchenettes are available where student groups may prepare their own spreads.

I provide a Gymnasium, Handball Courts, separate Locker Rooms, Bath equipment, and ample opportunity for exercise and games. My spacious roofs, high up in the blue, lend themselves to exercise, play, and rest. A Physical Manager and resident Health Advisor will aid in the quest for health.

I provide Committee Rooms for small meetings of a national and international character.

I have Tailor and Barber Shops and a Bazaar.

I am well equipped to further the social, intellectual, spiritual, and physical condition of men and women students from any land, who are studying in the colleges, universities and professional schools of the City of New York.

ONE OF TWO ROOFS.

I am self supporting but not profit making, and shall require rentals about the same as those of the colleges, $5 to $8 weekly. Rents for the Winter Session of 37 weeks will be payable in advance, the first half on taking possession and the balance on February 1st. Applicants who are accepted by the Committee on Admissions will pay $25 in advance to hold the rooms. In addition to room fees, each resident is required to make a deposit of $10 to cover possible breakage during his occupancy.
